Prayer Focus

By Jennifer Abigail Koshie Wallace

For several months, our prayer focus has been derived from Psalm 24:7-10. However, I strongly sense the Holy Spirit giving as a shift in focus.

Every true revival has begun with God pouring grace unto repentance. This is initiated by the Holy Spirit giving people a fresh revelation of Jesus Christ, the wretched state of the human soul, and our need for redemption. God supplies much grace for many to come into repentance and salvation or renewal of their love and commitment to Jesus. This fresh outpouring of the Holy Spirit results in people being empowered to boldly declare the gospel of Jesus Christ, turning lives, families and communities around. (Acts 2)

Key Scripture:

The coming revival is certainly going to be no different, which explains the change in prayer focus. For the next few weeks and months, we shall focus our prayers on Zechariah 12:10

“And I will pour on the house of David and on the inhabitants of Jerusalem the Spirit of grace and supplication; then they will look on Me whom they pierced. Yes, they will mourn for Him as one mourns for his only son, and grieve for Him as one grieves for a firstborn.”

This scripture gives us three clear areas of focus for prayer.

1. The Spirit of Grace

“And the Word became flesh, and dwelt among us, and we saw His glory, glory as of the only begotten from the Father, full of grace and truth. ...And of His fullness we have all received, and grace upon grace.” – John 1:14, 16

- ♦ Pray that God will release and supply grace to stir people up as on the day of salvation (Eph 2:8-9; Rev 2:4-5)
- ♦ Pray that grace will restore hope that deliverance is coming and God will help us.
- ♦ Pray for a release of favour upon the Church (grace is the

- unmerited favour of God)
- ♦ Pray Zechariah 4:6-7

2. The Spirit of Supplication

- ♦ Pray for the Holy Spirit to release a spirit of supplication upon the Church.

To supplicate means to petition, plead with, request or beg God for something. This is often not a casual type of prayer but a desperate, passionate and persistent plea to God. This type of prayer includes prayers of repentance and humbling of oneself before God. When we pray the prayer of supplication, we call on God's love, mercy, compassion, grace and faithfulness. We may not deserve it, but because of His mercy and grace, we are assured that He will hear us.

Example: Nehemiah prayed the prayer of supplication and God heard and answered his prayer (Nehemiah 1:1-10)

- ♦ Solomon described it in 1 Kings 8: 37-40
- ♦ Also, read 2 Chronicles 7:14; Philippians 4:6; Luke 11: 10-13; 1 Timothy 2:1-2

Our Country Needs Us! By Linda Davis, Chelmsford

“Your Country Needs You!” This was a popular war time slogan and it is as important today as it was then.

I love to pray with Jen, Marianne and Sarah in our Quiver group. We meet every week and hate to miss because every time we meet Jesus meets with us and His presence is very tangible through the power of the Holy Spirit.

We long to see His will done on earth as it is in heaven, for the evil which is so manifest in our country to be pushed back, for all the citizens of this country to know the freedom which only Christ can give, and especially that our churches will rise up and become the power houses for good that God intended them to be.

We put a map of the British Isles on the floor and we worship and we ask God to show us the areas of the country and the issues He wants us to pray for. We have prayed for the

3. A Fresh Revelation of Jesus Christ

“...They shall look upon Him.”

- ♦ Pray for a Christ-centred revival
- ♦ Pray that grace and faith shall cause the Church to see Jesus Christ in a fresh and new way.
- ♦ Pray Isaiah 35:3-6 for the Church
- ♦ Pray that the Church will rise up and boldly declare Jesus to all.
- ♦ Pray Isaiah 40:9

“O Zion, You who bring good tidings,
Get up into the high mountain;
O Jerusalem,
You who bring good tidings,
Lift up your voice with strength,
Lift it up, be not afraid;
Say to the cities of Judah,
“Behold your God!””

- ♦ Pray that many will be saved, healed and delivered

“It is the constant knocking that will break the rock!!!”

PROPHECY

Given by Rev. Islwyn Morgan
Tredgar, Wales, on 23/06/12

You hear my word but do you listen to my word? If you listen you will recognise my word. I am calling you to be intercessors. If you heed to My word, to what is written, then your desire will be fulfilled as it was purposed to be. Revival will come with contending. It is the constant knocking that will break the rock. If you desire for an outpouring of My Spirit like never before, then you will see it, only by manner in which you are prepared to intercede.

My Experience With QUIVER

By Sabrina Glen, Bethnal Green

I attended my first QUIVER breakfast meeting in October 2011 with my mum and sister. My experience overall was great and I met some wonderful women of God at the meeting. Pastor Jennifer shared the vision of QUIVER and I felt so encouraged and empowered to pray for the UK. I believe the vision of QUIVER is God-given and I love the concept of women coming together to pray for the nation.

My mum, sister and I have started a QUIVER prayer group in Bethnal Green at my mum's house. I have also recently joined the steering group for QUIVER, and I look forward to how God is going to use us to advance QUIVER in the UK.

Praying In line With God's Word

Poem by Sabrina Glen (12.06.2012)

When I pray in line with God's word,
God sets the captives free.

When I pray in line with God's word,
God can cleanse my heart and do a deeper work within me.

When I pray in line with God's word,
God gives me revelation, removes spiritual blindness and enables me to see.

When I pray in line with God's word, I can boldly come before the throne of grace because Jesus has given me access, He holds the key.

When I pray in line with God's word, I am like an arrow in His quiver, an instrument for the Lord.

When I pray in line with God's word, It is not by power and not by might but by my Spirit, said the Lord.

My sisters when you pray in line with God's word, You will see the impossible turn into possible with God!

rivers, the motorway network, Wales, nuclear submarine base in Scotland and all the many churches which this land contains.

We love our country and we want to bless it and see it prosper and be a place that others will come to and know that we are blessed by the Lord, we want His Name honoured!

We pray for parliament, government, central and local, for our education system and health service.

Jennifer is a very inspirational woman. God has anointed her to birth Quiver and see many women gather together to pray for our wonderful country, to see His will done on earth as it is in heaven!

I will do my best to encourage other women to join Quiver, all that's needed is a heart to pray for our country and the willingness to stand in the gap and allow God to work through us.

If you can, join a quiver group and join with us to pray because through us God will do great things! ♦
